No Currency Conversion Fee will apply to this transaction.

8.5. Loads made by bank transfer on a Business Day are generally reflected in your Available Balance within 24-48 hours of when they are made. The availability of some loads may be delayed while the funds are being validated. Other Load Mechanisms results may be immediately reflected in your Available Balance.

9. CURRENCY WALLETS, CURRENCY TRANSFERS AND EXCHANGE RATES

- 9.1. Upon loading your Travel Wallet Account with funds, you may transfer funds between Currency Wallets.

- 9.5. Where the Card is used to conduct a Payment Transaction in a currency which is a Non-Wallet Currency, the Applicable Exchange Rate shall apply to convert the Non-Wallet Currency to the Home Currency Wallet.
- 9.6. The Network Settlement Rate may vary at any time and the Cardholder agrees that any changes in exchange rates, including those favourable to the Cardholder, will be applied immediately without prior notice if the changes are based on the Network Settlement Rate, which is a referenced exchange rate.

9.7. The date of the currency conversion shall be the date on which the Payment Transaction is credited on the account of the Cardholder.

10. CURRENCY WALLET TRANSACTIONS

10.1. When using your Card in a Wallet Currency the following applies:

10.1.1. When making a purchase or an ATM withdrawal, your Travel Wallet Account will automatically debit the Currency Wallet of that country's currency if you have sufficient Available Balance in that specific Currency Wallet.

10.1.2. If there are no funds or insufficient funds in the Currency Wallet, your Card will debit funds from the next Currency Wallet nominated in your Currency Order. Your Travel Wallet Account will continue to debit each Currency Wallet in your Currency Order in succession until the transaction value is met. The full transaction value may be funded from multiple Currency Wallets. Each time funds are transferred from one Currency Wallet to another, an Auto Wallet Transfer will occur and the Applicable Exchange Rate plus the Currency Conversion Fee will apply.

10.2. When using your Card to make a transaction in a Non-Wallet Currency, the following applies:

10.2.1. When making a purchase or an ATM withdrawal, your Travel Wallet Account will debit funds from the Home Currency Wallet at the current Applicable Exchange Conversion Rate. In addition, a Currency Conversion Fee will also apply as set out in the Fee Schedule.

10.2.2. If there are no funds or insufficient funds in your Home Currency Wallet, your Account will debit funds from the next Currency Wallet nominated in your Currency Order. Your Travel Wallet Account will continue to debit each Currency Wallet in your Currency Order in succession until the transaction value is met in the equivalent value of the Home Currency. The full transaction value may be funded from multiple Currency Wallets within your Travel Wallet Account. Each time funds are transferred from one Currency Wallet to another, an Auto Wallet Transfer will occur and the exchange rate used will be the Applicable Exchange Rate plus the Currency Conversion Fee. Once there are sufficient funds in the Home Currency Wallet to pay for the transaction, your Travel Wallet Account will debit funds from the Home Currency Wallet at the current Applicable Exchange Rate plus the Currency Conversion Fee.

10.3. Where there are insufficient funds across all Currency Wallets on your Travel

Wallet Account to process the transaction, the transaction will be declined.

- 10.4. If you withdraw funds from an ATM that dispenses a currency other than that of the country where the ATM is located, the ATM operator may convert the amount being withdrawn into their local currency before converting it back to the currency being dispensed. This may occur even when the currency being dispensed is the same as that of your Card. The amount debited from your Card may be greater than the amount which is dispensed by the ATM. Not all ATM operators advise of the amount to be debited from your Card before you withdraw money from their ATM.
- 10.5. You agree to pay us the transaction fees for transactions in foreign currency set forth in the Fee Schedule and acknowledge that such transaction fees are subject to change.

11. GIVING CONSENT TO EXECUTE A TRANSACTION

- 11.1. By using the Credentials or by signing the record of transaction for a purchase, cash withdrawal or cash advance, you give us authority to pay the retailer, merchant, bank or service provider, as applicable, for a transaction. This authority may not be withdrawn once the transaction has become irrevocable, unless (a) the charge was an advance hold (see section 11) or (b) you dispute the transaction pursuant to Sections 13 – 15.
- 11.2. The transaction records sent by retailer, merchant, bank or service provider, even in the absence of a written signature, may be used as proof of the transaction in accordance to applicable law. The transaction slip printed by the terminal is for the Cardholder's personal information only.
- 11.3. Certain merchants, including hotels and rental car companies, are authorised by MasterCard to add an excess spend overage amount on a purchase transaction or transaction hold. The excess spend overage amount may be up to 15% of the total anticipated transaction value and is intended to ensure adequate funds are available to pay for additional expenses associated with the merchant's services. This hold for the overage amount usually lasts less than 7 days. If you agree to allow the merchant to include an excess spend overage amount as part of a transaction, your Available Balance will be reduced by the total value of the transaction (including the overage amount) until such time as the merchant submits the final amount of the transaction. If the final amount of the transaction is less than the original amount the difference will be credited back to your Available Balance.
- 11.4. Some merchants may also charge your Account for certain subsequent claims related to hotel stays, car rentals, and other similar transactions if, upon entering into the agreement with the merchant, you have accepted such debiting or have received notice of the merchant's right to charge the account. These subsequent charges will occur without your entering or using Credentials or providing a signature. In some countries, merchants must notify you in advance of any subsequent debiting which does not take place in direct connection with the use of the Card. If you deny liability for any subsequent charges assessed to your account, you may submit a claim to have the amount returned in accordance with the rules in Clauses 13, 14 and 15.

12. SAFEGUARDING THE CARD AND CARD DETAILS

Please do not disclose the PIN to anybody, including the police or us; moreover the PIN and other Credentials must not be used under such conditions that others can see them.

You may provide this notification by designating the card as lost or stolen via the Account Centre or by notifying our Customer Service department. We will not assess any charge for this notification. (While the characterization of a delay as an “undue delay” may vary depending on the circumstances, a failure to notify us within 13 months of the Payment Transactions being debited will always amount to undue delay.) If the transaction is one where the exact amount of the transaction was unknown at the time of authorisation (e.g. car hire or a hotel reservation) and the transaction amount appears incorrect, You must notify Us within eight (8) weeks of the date of the debit to your Account.
- 13.2. When you report the loss, theft, or compromise of your Card or Credentials or unauthorised use of your Card or Account, you must provide us with accurate and complete information, including, verification of your identity, your full Cardholder Credentials (except your PIN), transaction information, the circumstances that resulted in loss, theft, or compromise of your Card or Credentials, and help to ensure that the Card or Account is deactivated as soon as possible. - 13.3. We will make sure that our Account Centre and/or Customer Service enables you to make notifications of lost/stolen Card and unauthorized transactions at any time. Upon receipt of your notice, we will freeze funds in your account and block your card to prevent subsequent unauthorized use. We will also retain a record of your notification for at least 18 months.
- 13.4. We will immediately freeze funds in your account and block your Card upon receipt of this notification.

14. IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR CARD TRANSACTIONS

- 14.1. Contact Customer Service immediately if you think your Travel Wallet transaction history or receipt is wrong or if you require additional information about a transaction listed on the Travel Wallet transaction history or receipt. Please be prepared to provide the following information: your full name, Card number, description of the error or the transaction, explanation as to why you believe it is an error or why you need more information, and the amount of the suspected error. We may request additional information concerning your complaint or question, and may require that you provide this information in writing within 10 Business Days. We will investigate your complaint or question using the information you provide to us. If, upon completion of our investigation, we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. If funds were previously credited back to your Travel Wallet because you reported a transaction as a suspected error, we may debit those funds if our completed investigation has subsequently determined that the relevant transaction was in fact correct and authorised. You may ask for copies of the documents that were used in the investigation.

- 16.3. We will ensure the availability of our Account Centre or Customer Service at all times for you to notify us of lost, stolen or misappropriated Card or Credentials, or request the lifting of a card block.
- 16.4. We will not be obliged to enter into any dispute arising between you and a retailer or a bank and, moreover, a dispute with a retailer or a bank does not absolve you of complying with regulations governing the use of the Card and this Agreement. Please note that We do not accept liability for the quality, nature, delivery, or other aspects of the goods or services bought with the Card, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement or pursuant to legislation. Disputes related to the quality, nature, delivery, or other aspects of goods or services bought with the Card should be addressed to the merchant.
- 16.5. If you notify us that you have become a victim of fraud or other criminal offence in connection with charges to your account, (a) you must provide us with a written report detailing the circumstances and (b) We may require that you report the matter to the police.

16.6. We are liable for your direct losses: (a) for unauthorized transactions to the extent described in Section 15, (b) if the Account has been wrongfully debited as a result of our Payment Processing Services (and in some cases the merchant's systems) causing a transactional error, technical failure, posting errors or similar circumstances, (c) for incorrect charges to your Account due to our negligence. If you claim a technical failure in our Payment Processing Services, We must substantiate that the system was functioning normally at the time of the transaction.

16.7. According to Section 4-28 of the Norwegian Financial Contracts act, we are liable to you for the correct execution of the payment transaction that you have initiated unless we can prove that the payee's institution has received the amount of the transaction before the expiration of the transfer period allowed by the law. If we are liable because we have not executed the payment correctly, we shall without undue delay transfer the amount of the payment transaction to you and, if applicable, restore your Account to the state in which it would have been if the inadequately completed payment transaction had not taken place. In the cases described by this paragraph and section 15.6, we are responsible for direct losses, which include, if applicable, fees or interest which you may be required to pay because the payment transaction has not been properly executed. Notwithstanding, we are not liable for losses caused by abnormal circumstances beyond our control that we could not foresee or avoid the consequences of, despite all efforts to the contrary, or caused by our legal obligations under other legislation than Section 40 and 41 of the Norwegian Financial Contracts act or pursuant to legislation.

16.8. While We are responsible for processing your transactions in a correct and timely manner, absent negligence by us, we will not be liable for not processing transactions, or for processing them incorrectly, in the following circumstances:

the Available Balance is not enough to process the amount of the transaction as posted by you or the merchant (this may occur because you do not have sufficient funds in the account, because there is an existing authorization hold, or because you or the merchant have entered an incorrect transaction amount that exceeds the funds in the account);

- 16.8.2. access to your funds is blocked as a security measure because you reported the loss, theft or unauthorised use of your Card;
- 16.8.3. we have reason to believe the requested transaction is suspicious, fraudulent, or unauthorized;
- 16.8.4. we determine that we cannot process or execute a transaction to comply with applicable law, a court order or card association rules;
- 16.8.5. the ATM you are trying to use does not have enough cash;
- 16.8.6. the ATM, POS terminal, website, network, or communication system involved in your transaction did not work properly;
- 16.8.7. your computer or mobile device from which you are performing the transaction fails to send or receive data or relevant messages;

- 16.8.8. circumstances beyond our control (for example, natural disasters, earthquakes, fires, floods, war, or acts of terrorism) prevent the completion of the transaction;
- 16.8.9. a merchant, bank or ATM refuses to accept your Card;
- 16.8.10. you or the merchant provided inaccurate or incomplete information regarding a transaction. If the merchant provided an incorrect amount which you should have discovered when using the Card to pay for goods or services, you must address the complaint to the merchant;
- 16.8.11. your Card is not working because it has been damaged (in this case, please inform customer service so that we can replace the card); and
- 16.8.12. short-term interruptions in the payment card system or the Payment Processing Services.

In all of these instances, we may be liable if We have acted negligently and in doing so contributed to your loss. However, the liability for such negligence is limited to your direct loss.

- 16.9. Unless otherwise stated, our liability is limited to the amount deducted from your Account.
- 16.10. To the extent allowed by applicable law, We are not liable for any type of indirect losses, or consequential or punitive damages, unless we have acted with gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud. Further We are not liable for losses that (a) occur due to exceptional circumstances beyond our control or that we cannot predict or avoid the consequences, or (b) may be caused due to duties imposed on us by law.

17. REFUNDS FOR TRANSACTIONS

- 17.1. You shall receive a refund of an authorised transaction initiated by or through a payee if the amount of the transaction charged to the Card by the retailer is more than you could reasonably have expected in the circumstances of the purchase; and you ask the Issuer for a refund within eight (8) weeks of us debiting the transaction to the Card. If you ask us for a refund under these conditions, you must provide us with factual elements relating to this condition.
- 17.2. You cannot use a claim you may have against someone else to make a claim against us, or to refuse to pay us, unless you have a legal right to do so. You cannot transfer any rights against the Issuer to anyone else. You will settle all disputes about purchases you make using your Card with the merchant who accepted the Card. We are not responsible for the delivery, quality, safety, legality, or any other aspect of goods or services that you purchase from others with your Card.

18. OUR RIGHT TO BLOCK OR RESTRICT USE OF THE CARD OR ACCOUNT

- 18.1. Regardless of whether You have informed Us of the loss, theft or unauthorized use of Your Card, Account or Credentials, We may block or restrict the use of the Card or Account, including certain transactions attempted, if we or the Processor reasonably (a) consider it necessary for reasons relating to the security of the Card, (b) suspect the use of the Card is unauthorised, fraudulent, unlawful, illegal or unethical, or (c) You breach any of the terms of this Agreement, including with respect to the permitted use of the Card or the Account. We will notify You of the blockage and the reason for such action. We will provide the notice before the Card is blocked or, if this is impossible, immediately after the blockage.
